(That's what we are here for, after all...)

IT'S FESTIVAL TIME AGAIN.

Festival of Storytellers

ReadersMagnet is delighted to join the Los Angeles Times Festival of Books from April 23–24, 2022 at the University of Southern California.

This world-class event is another valuable opportunity for our top writers to bring their work to you, the reader.

Meet the authors of your favorite books in person or discover new titles from our plethora of top talent. Authors will be hosting talks, giving unbridled access to their creative processes, taking you on a journey from putting pen to paper to holding their first copy. If you can't make it to the event in person, fret not! The companion online event for the Festival of Storytellers ensures that you don't miss a beat with digital content from authors speaking at the event.
